

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CALL FOR ENTRIES
SANS SOUCI FESTIVAL OF DANCE CINEMA

Boulder, Colorado, USA, October 14, 2008 – The Sans Souci Festival of Dance Cinema announces its call for entries with deadlines on November 28, 2008 and January 2, 2009.

Sans Souci invites submission of film and video works that integrate dance and cinematography. Mixed-media works that include both cinema and live performance are also solicited. The festival hopes to attract both emerging and established dance-video and dance-film artists and encourages submissions from all artists regardless of credentials and affiliations.

Accepted works will be exhibited at the Sixth Annual Sans Souci Festival to be held in Boulder, Colorado, USA on Friday and Saturday, March 20 and 21, 2009, at the Dairy Center for the Arts. Selected works may also tour.

Literally meaning “no worries” in French, Sans Souci maintains reasonable entry fees of $25 and $40 for the early and final deadlines respectively.

The Fifth Annual Sans Souci Festival was held at the Boulder Museum of Contemporary Art in April 2008 and featured work by over twenty artists from eight different countries. Selected pieces were shown in a two-evening event at the Highways Performance Space & Gallery in Santa Monica, CA in October. In prior years Sans Souci has toured to venues in Germany, Mexico, Trinidad, and the United States.

“With its expansive definition of dance and its appreciation for highly experimental and interdisciplinary forms, Sans Souci is growing into an important festival,” says Nancy Spanier, internationally recognized choreographer and videographer.

When choosing works, Sans Souci curators consider integration of dance and cinema, thoughtful forms and themes, investigative / innovative / experimental / approaches, production values, and other criteria.

The Sans Souci Festival of Dance Cinema is supported by the Boulder County Arts Alliance and the University of Colorado at Boulder.
